Our Partners: Scott Kirby and Graceworks <https://www.graceworksak.com/>

Graceworks will provide us an opportunity to interact with diverse cultures in local parks and communities and offer support to unchurched children, youth, and adults. Included in our efforts will be block parties, backyard Bible clubs, and small projects. We will be building relationships and sharing the Gospel with all those we encounter.

Graceworks is the largest mission organization in Alaska, and it has been ministering there for about 18 years. They also work and minister in Eastern Europe as well.
