

Mission Trip to Guatemala

Dates: June 18-26

Location: Coban, Guatemala

Activity Level:  4.0
EASY STRENUOUS

Accommodations:

You will be staying in dorm style, bunk beds with several bunks to a room. Bathrooms are on the hall. All meals are provided except in the airport and lunch in Antiqua during our sightseeing day. We will stay 2-3 nights in Guatemala city at the Barcelo hotel. Travel will be by 15 passenger van.

Our Partners: Cristian and Eugenia Teruel Misioneros sin Fronteras

We will be reaching out to villages in the mountains of Guatemala. We will be involved in children's programming, food distribution, and discipleship. This trip involves hiking, warm, humid weather, language barriers, and no air conditioning, but the long-lasting memories and relationships you'll make are worth the sacrifices and hard work. We will be sharing the Gospel with all those we encounter.

Some Guatemala facts:

The national bird is the Quetzal and their currency is Quetzales

Spanish is the national language but many also speak Queqchi in the mountains.

Coban is one of the largest producers of African Palm oil in the world.

Guatemalan food is not spicy, but it is colorful.

The Mission Center makes their own bread and treats..

There are 37 volcanoes in Guatemala and 3 are active.

Toilet paper is never flushed in Coban. 😊

Total Cost: $1600.00 including airfare (Up to 50% of that cost will be covered by LOFJ, the remainder will be raised or provided by you.)

Deposit: $200.00 by November 20 to secure your spot...Training begins in February! You'll need a passport. Start learning Spanish and walking uphill a lot!
